

GIFTED Assessments

...Because You're More
Than Just "Smart"

You are a challenge-seeking, problem-solver.

You ask questions and dive deep for answers.

You absorb information rapidly.

You are curious, creative, and driven.

You consider all the complex factors in a situation.

You crave understanding, not just achievement.

You have nuanced insights and humor.

Could you be gifted?

Understanding your mind can change how you live.

- Build on your strengths
- Connect with others by understanding yourself
- Embrace your curiosity

Gifted people are more than just “smart.” They process information in richly complex ways. Our assessments match that complexity.

We use research-based tools to provide meaningful insights into how your degree of giftedness shapes you as a whole person.

What to expect:

- Two 1-on-1 sessions
- Dynamic assessments for children, teens, and adults
- A clear explanation of your results to share with others or just keep for yourself

Giftedness can bring challenges at any age, so we also provide a one-hour personalized consultation to help you learn about:

- How your strengths and struggles fit together.
- How your thinking style influences your communication, decision-making, and relationships.
- Validation for challenges you've noticed but couldn't explain.

Go beyond the simple answers. Dive deep here:
